

Usui/Tibetan Reiki Lineage of Shannon Marie Svensson

It was in the early 1990's that Shannon Marie Svensson came in contact with the Reiki community via a women's wisdom circle she held in her art studio. At the time Reiki was still very expensive to learn, and although curious about Reiki energy, becoming a practitioner would have to wait. Tradition surrounding the teaching of Reiki changed with the new millennia and Reiki became more affordable and accessible to the world. Shannon met Mark S. McNutt: Usui Reiki Master, Astrologer, Faery Seer and Shaman at the 2001 Fairy and Human Relations Congress. She received her first Reiki attunement from Mark in 2004. Shannon founded Circle Green Healing Arts the next year in 2005.

Her practice successfully combined Usui Reiki treatments with the healing modalities she already practiced: Chakra meditation, positive affirmation, sound healing with the crystal singing bowls, gemstone healing and aromatherapy. Shannon's contacts in the metaphysical world grew and mutual friends introduced Shannon to Valerie Byram, a multi-disciplinary Master of Reiki, and Soaring Crane Qigong. Shannon studied the full Reiki training course with Valerie, receiving her first Reiki master attunement in 2006, which certified her as an independent Usui/Tibetan Reiki Master healer with the ability to pass on the teachings of Usui Reiki. Two years later, William Lee Rand offered a master training course in Seattle, Washington. She was given the Reiki master attunement by William in September 2008.

The future of Reiki healing will be written by those who are drawn to its gentle harmony. With the help of dedicated teachers like Usui/ Tibetan Reiki Master Shannon Marie Svensson, these extraordinary people will change the world.
